

HIGH TIDE 17

SITE-RESPONSIVE ART
BETWEEN LAND & SEA

FREMANTLE WEST END
28 OCT - 12 NOV 2017

High Tide Directors are thrilled to invite you to the launch of HIGH TIDE 17
Saturday 28 October 2017, 5pm for a 5.30pm start
Arthur Head Reserve next to the Round House overlooking the Indian Ocean

High Tide is the first incarnation of the Fremantle Biennale, a unique event, hosting the best in site-responsive art. Situated in new and found sites around the west end of Fremantle, High Tide presents invited local and international artists who respond to and work with the rich landscape that is the tapestry of Fremantle.

SEE LINE-UP

SEE ARTISTS

SEE SITE MAP

PROCEEDINGS

5.30pm - Welcome to Country

5.45pm - High Tide official opening by City of Fremantle Mayor and The Hon Simone McGurk, MLA, Member for Fremantle

6.00pm - Welcome by High Tide Artistic Director, Tom Müller

6.15pm - Guided tours of High Tide Sites start

7pm-8pm - Live performance by acclaimed producer and High Tide artist, Ned Beckley aka Lower Spectrum

8pm-9pm - Sonnenmasse performed live by interdisciplinary High Tide artist Leon Ewing

RSVP essential as numbers are limited:

info@hightidefremantle.com by 25 Oct 2017 with High Tide 17 Launch in the subject line.

@hightidefremantle #hightidefremantle #hightide17 #fremantlebiennale

High Tide 17 is an initiative by the City of Fremantle | A Fremantle Festival Event

High Tide 17 is generously supported by our partners

Felice Varini
Arcs d'Élleses (2017) (Detail)
Photo: Tom Müller

High Tide is an initiative by

Major Partners

Government of Western Australia
Department of Culture and the Arts

Presenting Partners

