Inauguration & opening
of our new space

Maó, Menorca
Saturday, July 6

Albarrán Bourdais is pleased to announce the opening of its new space in Menorca.

A project that arises as a continuation of the work started 20 years ago by Eva Albarrán and Christian Bourdais to bring contemporary art and architecture to the public, offering artists the best possibilities for experimentation.

The gallery will open its doors from July 6 with a major exhibition dedicated to the Swiss artist Felice Varini.
